OPENING SCRIPT TEXT

INTRO 1: Hello. I’m calling for researchers at the University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill. I’m not asking for money, and I’m not trying to sell you anything. We are doing a national study on how adult Americans are responding to and dealing with the events of September 11 and after. Your phone number was dialed at random by a computer-generated list of numbers in the U.S. so that your views will be confidential. In order to get a random person from your household, I need to speak to the person 18 or older who has the most recent birthday. Is that you or someone else?"

1. Continue [GO TO S1]

[RESPONSE IF ASKED AGAIN HOW GOT NUMBER: “Your number was drawn from a random sample of telephones in the U.S. which were randomly generated by computer.

[RESPONSE IF ASKED HOW LONG IT WILL TAKE: “This survey should take about 30 minutes.”]
